As sung in the Opera Bouffe

"THE CHOCOLATE SOLDIER"

Andante.

Oh, when you smile and feel like cry-ing, And when you can-not tell the rea-son why,..... You're in when at night you should be sleep-ing You rest-less lie and toss a-bout the bed,..... You're in love when you smile while you are cry-ing, Or when you laugh when you would rather sigh,..... I am no love when you watch the shadows creep-ing, Or when at dawn you rise with ach-ing head,..... I am no schem-er, nor a fool-ish dream-er, I am a girl, a girl of com-mon sense,..... But could I find a true and hon-est lov-er, Oh, I would love him with a love in-tense,.....

I am he, yes, I am he the lov-er you seek, I..... Oh, when you smile and feel like dy-ing, Or when you laugh while you are sigh-ing, and you can give no rea-son why, But still you long to sing or cry, Oh, when the woods to you are call-ing, It is a sign that you are fall-ing, fall-ing in love, yes, deep in love, fall-ing fall-ing, deep in love. Then

News of the Week as Told in County Press

L. L. Johnson of the East Side, is shipping a car load of apples to Copenhagen, Denmark, his native land. They include Rome Beauty, Yellow Newton, Arkansas Black, and Winesap. Two extra fine boxes have been packed, one for the king of Denmark and one for Mr. Johnson's father. This may mean the opening of a new permanent market for our apple product.—Freewater Times.

Rev. Milo G. Bentley, pastor of the Freewater Baptist church, left on Tuesday for Green River, Utah, where he will hold revival services for a few weeks. Next Sunday his pulpit here will be supplied by Rev. Ormslee of Walla Walla. He was accompanied by Henry Schock and together they will endeavor to find a market for the apples of G. Freitag and other parties in the small towns of Nebraska and Eastern Utah.—Freewater Times.

Death claimed another of the sturdy pioneers who have been factors in building the civilization of this valley, Monday, when Louis Winters, a well known resident of the Fruitvale neighborhood was found dead in bed, death having come some time between midnight and morning. Mr. Winters was aged 74 years, 7 months and 21 days. The immediate cause of death was rheumatism of the heart.—Milton Eagle.

Apple shipments for the year 1912 will end with the Milton Fruitgrowers' union this week, a total of approximately 350 cars being sent out during the past two months, according to Manager N. W. Mumford.—Milton Eagle.

Miss Blanche Demaris lies at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Demaris, five miles southeast of Milton, in a serious condition as the result of being hit by a large dinner bell which became loose from its position on a high post at the Demaris place Monday, and fell, striking the young lady on the side of the head, just as she finished ringing the bell for dinner. Miss Demaris was knocked to the ground unconscious, and although medical attention was secured at once, her condition still remains doubtful.—Milton Eagle.

On his return the first of the week from an extended pleasure trip through the middle west, particularly in Kansas and Missouri, City Recorder C. R. Samuel, Jr., says that wherever he went the indications pointed to the election of Woodrow Wilson to the presidency of the United States. Mr. Samuel was accompanied on his trip by Mrs. Samuel, who was threatened with an attack of fever while gone, and is now not entirely convalescent. Marvin B. Samuel, Walla Walla representative for the New York Life Insurance company, returned with his brother C. R. Samuel, and says that in New York and adjacent states which he visited the sentiment is strongly in favor of Wilson.—Milton Eagle.

Dr. Garfield and Bert Livermore, of Pendleton, passed through Pilot Rock the first of the week, returning to Pendleton after a bear hunt in the mountains south of this place. They killed a bear near the ranch of Henry Lazinka.—Pilot Rock Record.
